Celebrating 125 Years

Visual Display for Lent: The two fabrics tied in a knot represent turning the material “upside down and inside out”. God is not content to leave us just as we are, but instead turns our expectations and understandings “upside down and inside out”. The three candles on the table represent each member of the Trinity, God, Savior and Spirit.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Through the Bible in a Year Reflection Questions: as we journey through the Bible this year, here are a few questions to reflect upon in your reading. More may be found at Pastor Dave’s blog (<http://thequest.blogspot.com/>). A complete list of daily readings is available from the office. Mar 9-15:

- In Numbers 30, we read of the rules surrounding vows and encounter a very clear double standard. Men must adhere to their vows regardless. Women on the other hand must only adhere to their vows if their father or husband approved of the vows. What are we to do with this understanding in our modern setting with our current understandings of male and female equality/rights?
- In Numbers 22, we read of Balaam and his faithfulness to blessing rather than cursing the people of Israel. Yet in Numbers 31:8, we learn that the people of Israel killed Balaam. In Numbers 31:16, Moses blamed Balaam for advice that led to Israel’s unfaithfulness in the Peor incident (Num 25:1-18). What else do we learn of Balaam throughout scripture and what are we to make of him?
- In Numbers 32:5, we read of the request made by the Gadites and Reubenites to remain on the other side of the Jordan rather than cross over. Moses reminded them of what took place 40 years ago that led to their wandering in the wilderness. But the Gadites and Reubenites pledged to fight with their brothers until each tribe had its inheritance. Moses affirmed this. In what ways have you experienced or witnessed this type of commitment to one another?
- In Numbers 35, we read of the cities of refuge. These were places that were set aside for people who had accidentally killed someone to flee to for safety from an avenger. The person had to remain in the city of refuge until the high priest died. In the midst of all the judgment in the Old Testament, we have this example of mercy/grace. Do we have modern parallels to this dynamic?
- We learn that women who inherited property were allowed to marry anyone as long as the man was from the same tribe so that the property remained in their tribe’s inheritance. In this we see the working out of the rules that had been given. The daughters of Zelophehad had expressed concern about how strict adherence to the law would have left their father’s name without an inheritance (Num. 27:1-11). And the leaders of their clan expressed concern about how that property might then be lost to another tribe by strict adherence to the law (Num 36:1-13). How do we navigate current interpretations of scripture as we encounter the realities of life together? Is there still space for us to go to the LORD to seek clarity? How do we determine how best to work through these circumstances when there may be disagreements about what to do?

Freezing temperatures and snow are adding another layer of deprivation to Syrians and Iraqis who have been forced from their homes to escape violence from the Islamic State group and battling armies in Syria. Mennonite Central Committee is calling for financial donations as it provides heating fuel and blankets this winter and continues to address basic needs of food, shelter and education throughout the year. In addition, MCC welcomes contributions of blankets and comforters to replenish the more than 18,500 that were sent to Iraq, Lebanon, Jordan and Syria for the winter months. You can donate to the Syria and Iraq crisis response. Make checks to Bethel Mennonite Church & write "MCC Syria/Iraq" on the memo line.

MCC Peace Gathering in Chicago: You are invited to join Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) Great Lakes for an informative day of workshops, worship and dialogue on Sat., March 28. In the morning, pastors are invited to a conversation with MCC staff and board. Beginning at 1:00 p.m., MCC U.S. staff will lead public workshops on immigration, military enlistment, gun violence and anti-oppression. Following the seminars, there will be a short worship service before the opportunity to engage in additional conversation over a light supper. The Peace Gathering will take place at Living Water Community Church (6808 N. Ashland Blvd.) in Chicago. More details, including a full schedule and workshop descriptions, can be found at mcc.org/gl-peace. Please RSVP to Jorge Vielman, Peace & Justice Coordinator, at JorgeVielman@mcc.org or 574-534-4133.

Contributions to Ohio Conference: As Ohio Conference wraps up their fiscal year, they are in need of additional funds. Ohio Conference supports us in a number of ways including resources, grants, and counsel from our regional pastor, Wanda Stopher. If you would like to make a contribution to Ohio Conference, please do so by March 15th. Checks may be made out to Bethel Mennonite with "Ohio Conference" on the memo line and placed in the offering.
